

Personal and Confidential

41(3) Mysore.
2/2/25

Dear Mr. Mirza,
With reference
to your kind enquiry regarding the prospects at Patna, I beg to enclose herewith a statement, which will speak for itself. True, I may not succeed in getting the place. But it is a chance worth trying. I thought.
It will, however,

Personal & Private 40(3)

Mysore.
24.1.25

Dear Mr. Mirza,
During the past week there have been here some developments of a purely personal character, with regard to which, I was very eager to consult you. But circumstances of a delicate nature, not only necessitated my hurrying up the

He seen that the scale as originally sanctioned by our Govt for the Registrar in Mysore, is the same as that now fixed in Patna, the maximum in both the cases being Rs 1000. But this has not been given to me.

I am not thinking of Mr.
Denham's special salary Rs 1200 + c. Had they given me the the salary fixed for this place originally I should never have thought of this cause, however tempting the prospect, at my present age.

Those that have Children can not afford to depise money even in their old age.

Pray destroy this letter & the contents of the periodical.

Yours sincerely
V. Subramanyam

preliminary steps but prevented my going to you.
I have, however, reserved the final, which I shall not take without placing the matter before you.

I do not know your programme. If you think to be at Bangalore on Monday the 26th inst, would you be so kind as to spare me some ten minutes at about 7.30 in the evening. I shall go to you straight from the station and return

by the next train.

Accepting of your excuse the liberty I am taking,

I am
Yours sincerely
V. Subramanyam